

Anna RYBAK

University of Bialystok, Bialystok, Poland

Dr. Anna RYBAK PhD. (Master of Computer Science—obtained at the Warsaw University, Doctor of Pedagog—obtained at the University of Bialystok) works at the Faculty of Mathematics and Informatics, University of Bialystok, Poland. Since 2008 she is Rector's Plenipotentiary for E-learning at the University of Bialystok and since 2014 she is a contact-person between Polish Association of Academic E-learning and Media & Learning

Association. Areas of her scientific interests are methodology of using multimedia in education, effectiveness of technology aided education (including distance education), individualization of educational process in intelligent multimedia tutoring systems, constructivistic way of learning in technology aided educational process.

She also has deep experience in teaching in school (mathematics and ICT) and cooperation with teachers and supports many projects related to ICT aided education and distance education as expert in these fields, especially from pedagogical point of view.

Dr. Anna RYBAK, PhD.
University of Bialystok
Faculty of Mathematics and Informatics
Dept. of Didactics and Modern Technologies in Education
Sosnowa Street 64, office 310, 15-887 Bialystok, POLAND
Phone (office): +48 85 7457647
Mobile: +48 603100306
Skype: sawanna8086
Email: aniar@ii.uwb.edu.pl