

Dear GLOKALde Readers,

This issue of our journal is dedicated to the faculty member of Anadolu University, Dr. Uğur DEMİRAY. We remember him with longing, love and respect.

We had to stop the broadcast of our international distance education journal GLOKALde (Global and Local Distance Education) due to our founder and chief editor Uğur Demiray's sudden loss on December 1, 2017. With his illuminating light, we as GLOKAL'de team, hope to continue to publish our journal from where he left it.

Our journal was last published as Volume: 3, Number: 3. Now we continue our publication with Volume: 3 Number: 4. As of 2018, our journal will be published in April and October as two issues.

Providing the student with the responsibility of his/her own learning and eliminates the necessity of being in the same place, Distance Education dating back to the first century is an education system in which the success rate is increasing day by day with the developing technology. Our journal also includes international studies in this field.

In this issue, the articles entitled "Female Education: The Facilitating and Hindering Factors Regarding Female Education in Gilgit - Baltistan Context of Pakistan" by Sultan ALAM and Female Distance Education Undergraduate Students' Perception of the Effects of Information Communication Technology (Ict) Usage on Their Academic Work" by Paul NYAGORME and Simon-Peter Kafui AHETO are included.

We hope to stay in touch with you in our upcoming issue that will be published by 1 April 2018.

Cordially,
